F.No. 01/Prog./2021 (VL)

To,
The Principal
Rayburn College,
New Lamka, Manipur

Subject: Half-day symposium 'to promote and encourage healthy and ethical unique urban culture' for college students of Lamka (Churachandpur) - regarding

Dear Rev

Warm greetings to you on behalf of Vision Lamka!

You may like to recollect the telephonic conversation you had with the Chairman of Vision Lamka regarding holding of symposium for the young adults/ college students.

As he must have mentioned, we are a group of persons who sincerely wish to see the city of Lamka to become the best place in the world. This may sound impractical and even laughable for some people. Yes! It is indeed our intention to provoke you to believe that our dream may become a reality one day. Say after a hundred or 500 years from today. Our aim is not of immediate tomorrow but a journey of visions, values and dreams for all generations to come.

Our aim is to lay the foundation the next generation could continue to build upon with the same vision of making the city the best. It's a journey of hope and adventure from generation to generation.

One of the enumerated objectives of Vision Lamka as incorporated in the MOA is to 'to promote and encourage healthy and ethical unique urban culture' (Copy enclosed). On this particular objective we are of the view that we must target the young adults so that they may evolve and promote the healthy and ethical culture for the future generations. We are, therefore, wondering whether we in collaboration could organise say half day Symposium for college students in the near future. Vision Lamka would be able to bear some rise. expenses like the cost of banner, refreshment, etc.

We shall be grateful if could kindly consider it and respond to this proposal.

Sincerely,

 Secretary,
 Vision Lamka

INDEPENDENCE DAY
 Like a giant reaching heights, after days and days of being in the darkness of night
 A country free from oppression and control, with the united spirit of every soul
 Tears of happiness flow down like a stream, a wish that comes true, a dream
 The sacrifice of the fathers finally shows, our freedom fighters are proud with all honor Discrimination and oppression strengthened again, paving the road to freedom and prosperity of years
 The work and zeal of heroes often, whose sacrifices, when India united our oppressors
 Over the world against the mighty British empire through persistence and resistance, the real choice
 Saffron, white and green
 The colour of strength, courage, truth and peace
 Honouring the day with pride and passion, remembering the years passed by the side
 Stand together to protect our beautiful land,
 In which can help us for our independent
 In 1947!

THE VALOR'S SONG
 R. L. Stevenson
 M.A. (19th. C.)

Through a highway of temptation,
 Amid allegiances and romance,
 When I gather all might,
 Wipe my tears and bid them goodnight,
 For it can't be my last minute.

A march in an uncharted land,
 Closer I tend to face,
 Further I am from home,
 Yet I should press on,
 It's a departure, yes,
 But I set off to gain all.

Through a highway of temptation,
 May I confess, I am lost,
 Not without fear nor awe,
 For the sacrifice is much,
 Just that I cannot gain as more.

I carry on with eyes monocious,
 The only thing I could now resort to,
 I know what I will face,
 But not the unknown,
 For it is uncertain.

But some what may,
 I will build my head high,
 I am a soldier, and I have a duty
 I will stand with pride,
 And follow the flag.

If in this battle meet I fall,
 King of me long to them,
 Tell them that I have given,
 Everything I was called for,
 That I have died a glorious death.

Running the burning lamp
 lighting the halls
 The sound of their banners all across
 I wish I could have been one of them
 The valiant heroes

If being around my pre- school days where I sing
 "Oh Indian flag"
 I salute my flag,
 It makes me proud
 I am an Indian,
 It stands not just three large letters
 across my flag
 Saffron, white and green
 state the flag
 The saffron, white
 blue on white
 Spire of progress
 flight to light

Then independence days make me think
 'only night that I have had in life
 to see for my country'

Rayburn College observes International Literacy Day 2022 at its campus today

On September 8, 2022, at 11:00 AM, the Department of English and the Women Development Cell, Rayburn College, co-organized the International Literacy Day 2022 at its College Faculty Lounge today. Ms. Livia Tinglanhoh hosted the program, and Dr. Marina Lalitina Inimate started the program with a welcome address and was complimented by Ms. Vungthianmuang. This was followed by a speech from Dr. Siambhanthang Neihahai, IQAC Coordinator of the College. This was followed by a Book Talk from the Resource Person, Ms. Manlun Kim, Asst. Prof. Department of English, Churachandpur College.

Ms. Manlun Kim, the speaker of the program, emphasized Since 1967, International Literacy Day (ILD) has been celebrated on September 8 to spread awareness about the importance of literacy for individuals, communities, and societies and the need for intensified efforts toward more literate societies. It is imminent to raise awareness in the world of literacy issues people face and endorse campaigns that help increase literacy for all people.

Despite the progress, we know literacy challenges persist and are distributed unevenly across countries and populations. Therefore, it is necessary to focus on linguistic diversity in education and literacy development to overcome the challenges and achieve Sustainable Development Goals.

This year's International Literacy Day is celebrated worldwide under the theme, "Transforming Literacy Learning Spaces," and will be an opportunity to rethink the fundamental importance of literacy learning spaces to build resilience and ensure quality, equitable, and inclusive education for all.

After an Interactive session among the program participants, the program was adjourned with words of thanks from Dr. Siambiakmawi, HoD, Department of English & Coordinator, Woman Development Cell(WDC), Rayburn College.
